

Summer Term Week 8

1. Maths- We are now subscribed to White Rose as a school so I have download this week and placed all the videos and worksheets you need into a folder on the website called Maths Week 8 – you can then choose the appropriate year group folder- Maths Year 3 Week 8 Lessons and Worksheets. Or Maths Year 4 Week 8 Lessons and Worksheets. As we had two weeks for half term we will be doing last weeks lessons so don't worry if it says W/C 15th June- that is the week you need to do. Please contact me if you have any questions or problems at claire.dunsire@sandylane.bradford.sch.uk.
2. Creative- These will vary from week to week- sometimes they will be Art based and sometimes other areas like Geography, History or social and emotional
3. Speaking and Listening- Every few days I will send a ping out with a question or thought for you to discuss with your family- just like we do we have our chats in class, use the same rules we use- taking turns and listening respectfully – even if you don't agree !- These discussions do not need to be written down in any way- if you want to share your thoughts on class dojo with us it would be lovely to hear.

This term the Maths and English are the main tasks to complete and then your child can choose from the other areas. We have tried to be as clear as we can with the learning in order to support you at home but remember you can contact myself or your class teacher if you have any questions as we are happy to help. Mrs.Dunsire

Science

How did your families do with the quiz ? Hopefully, you found some great facts to use.

This week, as we are using the film the Lion King for our English I thought you could find out some more facts about Lions. Look at the passage below and then answer the true/false statements.

Lion

For all of their roaring, growling, and ferociousness, lions are family animals and truly social in their own communities. They usually live in groups of 15 or more animals called prides.

Lion prides can be as small as 3 or as big as 40 animals. In a pride, lions hunt prey, raise cubs, and defend their territory together. In prides the females do most of the hunting and cub rearing. Usually all the lionesses in the pride are related—mothers, daughters, grandmothers, and sisters.

Many of the females in the pride give birth at about the same time. A cub may nurse from other females as well as its mother. Each pride generally will have no more than two adult males.

Hunting generally is done in the dark by the lionesses. They often hunt in groups of two or three, using teamwork to stalk, surround, and kill their prey. Lionesses aren't the most successful of hunters, because they usually score only one kill out of several tries. After the kill the males usually eat first, lionesses next—and the cubs get what's left. Males and females fiercely defend against any outside lions that attempt to join their pride.

Because of their size, strength, and predatory skills, lions are considered one of the "big cats." Tigers, cheetahs, leopards, jaguars, and cougars are also part of this grouping.
